The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”) hereby submit this motion (this “Motion”) for the entry of an order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, directing the joint administration of the Debtors’ chapter 11 cases. In support of this Motion, the Debtors submit the Declaration of Phillip Juhan in Support of Debtors’ Chapter 11 Petitions and Requests for First Day Relief (the “First Day Declaration”), filed contemporaneously herewith. In further support of this Motion, the Debtors respectfully state as follows:

BASIS FOR RELIEF

6. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b), if two or more petitions are pending in the same court by or against a debtor and an affiliate, “the court may order a joint administration of the estates.” Fed R. Bankr. P. 1015(b). Section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code also provides the Court with the power to “issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of [the Bankruptcy Code].” Further, Local Rule 1015-1 provides for joint administration of chapter 11 cases when the facts demonstrate that joint administration “is warranted and will ease the administrative burden for the parties.” Del. Bankr. L.R. 1015-1. In these chapter 11 cases, the Debtors are “affiliates,” as that term is defined in section 101(2) of the Bankruptcy Code.

7. Additionally, the First Day Declaration establishes that joint administration of the Debtors’ respective estates is warranted and will ease the administrative burden on the Court and all parties in interest in these chapter 11 cases. Joint administration will also permit the Clerk of the Court to utilize a single docket for all of the chapter 11 cases, and to combine notices to creditors and other parties in interest in the Debtors' respective cases. Because there will likely be numerous motions, applications, and other pleadings filed in these cases that will affect all of the Debtors, joint administration will permit counsel for all parties in interest to include all of the Debtors' cases in a single caption for the numerous documents that are likely to be filed and served in these cases. Joint administration will also enable parties in interest in all of the Debtors' cases to stay apprised of all of the various matters before the Court.

8. Joint administration of these chapter 11 cases will not prejudice or adversely affect the rights of the Debtors' creditors, because the Debtors seek only administrative, not substantive, consolidation of their estates. Parties in interest will not be harmed by the relief requested, but, instead, will benefit from the cost reductions associated with the joint administration of these cases.

9. For these reasons, the Debtors respectfully submit that the joint administration of these cases is appropriate and is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, and all other parties in interest, and therefore this Motion should be granted.

NOTICE

10. The Debtors have provided notice of this Motion to: (i) the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Delaware; (ii) the United States Securities and Exchange Commission; (iii) the attorneys general for the states in which the Debtors operate their business; (iv) the Internal Revenue Service; (v) counsel to the Ad Hoc Group of Term Loan Lenders; (vi) the Debtors' cash management banks; and (vii) those creditors holding the thirty (30) largest unsecured claims against the Debtors' estates (on a consolidated basis). Notice of this Motion and any order entered on this Motion will be served as required by Local Rule 9013-1(m). In light of the nature of the relief requested herein, the Debtors submit that no other or further notice is necessary.

WHEREFORE, for the reasons set forth herein, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court (a) enter an order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, directing the joint administration of the chapter 11 cases, and (b) grant such other and further relief as is just and proper.
